

Adventure in Art School Break Day Camps!

Do you have a young artist or just want to introduce your child to the Arts?

Adventure in Art School Break Camp is the place to nurture their talents.

Students create in many different art forms over the course of the break; each day is a different art experience.

Morning sessions- 9am – 12 noon--Students will get hands-on instruction using drawing, painting and creating fun projects in tons of media. We have a Winter break teacher who is awesome at manga and character drawing too! $40.00 per day

Afternoon sessions- 1pm – 4pm--Students will delve into painting, clay and 3D to create art using various media and techniques.

--If the student went to the morning session, they will be able to apply their new skills to their afternoon masterpieces! $40.00 per day

Full day sessions- 9am – 4pm—Here they can develop good techniques and skills using a variety of media. The full day allows for young artists to develop their ideas to the fullest. This is a great way to immerse the student in the creative process and they have several finished pieces to take home. $70.00 per full day

All supplies are included.

AGES 6-14, Enroll soon, space is limited

Winter Break Day Camp----3 days of creating!

December 28, 29, and 30, 2015

Winter Camp is available on a per day basis and you can choose morning, afternoon, or get a discount for the full day. There is also an extended option to pick up students between 4 and 5:30pm.

Spring Break Full Week Camp--- ---5 days! -

March 7,8,9,10, and 11, 2016

Spring Break Camp is available as full day sessions only. Classes are available on a per-day basis, allowing families to customize art camp around family events and travel. There is also an extended option to pick up students between 4 and 5:30pm.

Register online and pay via paypal, at:

adventureinart.net

or mail check and registration to:

Adventure in Art

6001 Maple St.

Omaha, NE 68104

Questions? Email or call

beth@adventureinart.net

If choosing full day, please bring:

- Bring a sack lunch and snack if desired. Lunch is 1 hour but will also include art discussions and examples.
- Wear washable, old clothing
- If your child is taking medication for an on-going condition during the school year, he/she must continue it while attending Day Camp. If your child receives special services at school, you may be asked to be available or provide special services at your own expense.
- No refunds if child is asked to leave camp for behavioral reasons. -That has never happened yet☺!